What is Islam? The God of Muhammad was the same as that of Abraham, Noah, Moses, and Jesus, yet today much is misunderstood about the faith of 1/5 of the world's population spread across the world (less than 10% Arab).

Western thought separates religion from politics, economics, and science. For Muslims, these subjects are inseparable: Islam is a way of life.

As the New World Order attempts to consolidate power in the 21st century, it identifies Islam as a major obstacle, condemning Islamic civilization. Conversely, Muslims are offended by Western secular culture and arrogant behavior.

For a panel discussion about this clash of cultures, morals and ideas...
