

Celebrate Earth Week by paying tribute to the pioneering work done by Ivory Perry. Learn about recent efforts to eradicate lead poisoning. How can federal, state & local representatives work together to get the job done?

The forum includes:

- George Lipsitz, Dept. of Black Studies
University of California - Santa Barbara
- Daniel Berg, M.D., founder of Health & Environmental Justice, St. Louis
- Kathleen Logan-Smith,
Health & Environmental Justice, St. Louis
- Wm. Lacy Clay, US Congressman, District 1
- Patrick Dougherty, Missouri Senate, District 4
- Irene J. Smith, former St. Louis Alderwoman, Ward 1
- Don Fitz, Gateway Green Alliance [moderator]

Ivory Perry

and the Struggle for a

LEAD FREE ST. LOUIS

7 pm, Thursday
April 20, 2006

Regional Arts Commission
6128 Delmar Blvd, St. Louis

For more info call 314-727-8554 or visit www.gateway-greens.org

Sponsored by

Gateway Green Alliance • Universal African Peoples Organization • Health & Environmental Justice, St. Louis • Missouri Forest Alliance