2008 Elections & Beyond...

What will the 2008 election results mean for the nation, the state of Missouri, and the City of St. Louis? Join us for a discussion of what to expect.

Will the US economy still be in chaos? How are low income people affected? Can jobs be increased without poisoning the environment? Will our new leader provoke a war with Iran? Intervene in Venezuela?

Closer to home, will the new Missouri legislature continue its attack on public schools? Will it support St. Louis having its own police oversight? What needs to change in the City?

The forum will include:

- Rev. Elston K. McCowan, Green Party candidate for Mayor of St. Louis [moderator]
- Irene J. Smith, Democratic Party candidate for Mayor of St. Louis
- James Morris, Missouri State Representative, 58th District
- Don Fitz, Co-coordinator, Green Party of St. Louis
