

MLK CELEBRATION DINNER

Gateway Green Alliance
Universal African Peoples Organization

The work of the great civil rights leader, Martin Luther King, remains unfinished.

Blacks continue to have lower income, worse medical care, and fewer educational opportunities than do whites. Blacks are imprisoned at a higher rate and are more often shot and killed by police. These differences are getting larger as time goes on.

Those who honor Martin Luther King often forget to mention his strong connection to the labor and peace movements of his time. King vigorously opposed the Vietnam War and was assassinated while supporting sanitation workers.

Join us for dinner and discussion:

- Zaki Baruti, UAPO [moderator]
- Adolphus Pruitt, NAACP
- Tila Neguse, Peace Economy Project
- Paul Poposky, Gateway Green Alliance
